HOT OFF THE PRESS

March 2009

Old age is something everybody else reaches before you do.

Fact is fact and feeling is feeling; never does the second change the first.

The distance between some people's ears is one block.

The man who gets ahead is the man who does more than is necessary - and keeps on doing it.

Words to Live By

Most folks are about as happy as they make up their minds to be.
 - Abraham Lincoln

The reason a lot of people can't find opportunity is that it is often disguised as hard work.

A fortune awaits the person who will design a church building without any front pews.

The man with nothing to do always gives it his personal attention.

Rain is what makes flowers grow and taxis disappear.

It is better to live richly than to die rich.

A New York bachelor sent his picture to a Lonely Hearts Club. They replied, "We're not that lonely".

Your creed may be interesting but your deeds are much more convincing.

One thing all of us need is a grocery cart with four wheels that all go in the same direction.

A contented person is one who has all the things his neighbor has.

Some parties are formal; at others you wear your own clothes.

There are two kinds of egotists - those who admit it and the rest of us.

The man who is prepared has his battle half fought.

Things turn out best for the people who make the best of the way things turn out.

"Poverty is a state of mind," says the philosopher with a full stomach.

Advice to college students: Be kind to your parents. After sending you through college, you're all they have left.

You always find something in the last place you look.

They call it take-home pay because there is no other place you can afford to go with it.

Freedom is the right to be wrong, not the right to do wrong.

A man owes it to himself to become successful. Once successful, he owes it to the IRS.

Too many people confine their exercise to jumping to conclusions, running up bills, stretching the truth, lying down on the job, sidestepping responsibility and pushing their luck.

The biggest idiot can sometimes ask the questions the smartest man can't answer.

Works, not words, are the proof of love.
