HOT OFF THE PRESS

May

2009

If a person can see both sides of a problem, you know that none of their money is tied up in it.

An alarm clock is a device for awakening people who don't have small children.

The quickest way for a mother to get her children's attention is to sit down and look comfortable.

Words to Live By

Man's mind stretched by a new idea never goes back to its original dimensions.

Don't give till it hurts - give till it feels good.

Imagination was given to man to compensate for what he is not, and a sense of humor to console him for what he is.

Many a people have turned and left the dock just before their ship came in.

Be patient. You get the chicken by hatching the egg - not by smashing it open.

It is generally agreed that some people are wise and some otherwise.

A woman in Florida explains why she doesn't play golf: "I have more important things to lie about."

You can always tell luck from ability by it's duration.

Diplomacy is the art of taking sides without anyone knowing it.

It's difficult to inspire others to accomplish what you haven't been willing to try.

Defeat never comes to any man until he admits it.

He who does a kind deed should be silent, he who has received one should shout it from the housetop.

If you simply must make enemies, pick lazy ones.

Monthly Parchment

WHEN I'M RIGHT

no one remembers

WHEN I'M WRONG

no one forgets

Pictured above is a copy of this month's parchment we print for our friends. It is 8.5x11 and free for you to pick up during your next visit.

Discretion is putting two and two together and keeping your mouth shut.

Those who can laugh at trouble must be having a hilarious time nowadays.

Nothing grows faster than a fish from the time he bites until he gets away.

Stopping at third base adds no more to the score than striking out.

Stupid mistakes are made by others - I only make "unavoidable errors."

The greatest pleasure in life is doing what other people say can't be done.

Begin where you are. But don't stay where you are.

People show their character in nothing more than in what they find laughable.

If you want your children to keep their feet on the ground, put some responsibility on their shoulders.

Doctor: "Your cough sounds much better this morning."

Patient: "Well it should. I've been practicing all night."

The value of a dollar will never drop as low as some people will stoop to get it.
