HOT OFF THE PRESS

June 2009

A man can have no better epitaph than that which is inscribed in the hearts of his friends.

The trouble with owning a home is that no matter where you sit, you're looking at something you should be doing.

Make yourself an honest man, and then you may be sure that there is one rascal less in the world.

Words to Live By

Try not to become a man of success but rather try to become a man of value.

True happiness may be sought, thought or caught - but never bought!

It is reported that many resort hotels have towels so thick and fluffy that you can hardly close your suitcase.

When you sell yourself, be sure you don't misrepresent the goods.

Sometimes a person goes to Las Vegas out of curiosity and comes home out of funds.

The best gift for a man who has everything is a burglar alarm.

One of life's mysteries is why a girl who has done baby-sitting ever gets married.

Give not from the top of your purse, but from the bottom of your heart.

Have you ever considered that the very short words, "yes" and "no" require the greatest amount of thought?

Golf is a lot like taxes - you drive hard to get to the green and then wind up in the hole.

It's what we learn after we know it all that really counts.

You know you're getting old when your back goes out more than you do.

We underrate that which we do not possess.

It's a well known fact that the older a man gets, the faster he could run as a boy.

Success is a matter of luck. Ask any failure.

It is almost impossible to smile on the outside without feeling better on the inside.

Ideas are funny things. They don't work unless you do.

People who know the very least seem to know it the loudest.

Please don't try to use your influence until you are sure you have it.

Time invested in improving ourselves cuts down on the time wasted in disapproving of others.

The truly precious things that we all seek are really contained in each moment of our lives.

The trouble with giving a party is that if it gets boring, you're the only one who can't leave.

No matter how important you think you are, the main thing that determines the size of your funeral is the weather.

Your life can't go according to plan if you have no plan.
